Amethyst House, Inc.

is a grassroots, not-for-profit agency based in Bloomington, Indiana that provides residential and outpatient services for people with drug and alcohol addiction.

HISTORY: Amethyst House was founded in 1980 as “Ray of Love” by a group of recovering community members concerned about the need for safe housing for individuals beginning the recovery process from alcohol and other drugs. The name was changed to Amethyst House, Inc. in 1989, and outpatient services were added in 2000.

TODAY: Amethyst House is a United Way agency that has been continuously accredited and praised by the Commission for Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF) for addictions community housing and adult outpatient treatment; is certified by The Division of Mental Health and Addictions; and is an approved provider for the Indiana State Nurses Assistance Program. Amethyst House strives to always provide high quality services, accept the most challenging cases within the scope of its services, and maintain highly educated and trained staff utilizing the latest updates available in the field of addictions treatment. It operates two transitional housing programs for men, one for women, and an outpatient services facility. Amethyst House plays a central role in addiction recovery in Bloomington and works in cooperation with the judicial system and healthcare professionals in providing best in class addiction treatment services to all. Amethyst is governed by a 10 member Board of Directors with deep roots in Bloomington as business leaders, university staff members and other professionals from our community.
